7. Every application of the kind specified in rules 5 and 6 of these rules and every application under Order XXII rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to make the petitioner or some other person an additional or substituted party in a suit or appeal, shall, as to the allegations of fact contained in such application, be verified by affidavit.

The Deputy Registrar shall examine the application, and, if it does not satisfy the requirements of the Code or of these rules in that behalf, may return it to the person presenting it, for amendment and re-presentation within a time to be noted on such application under his signature, or may refer the application to a Judge for orders.

10. Any such application may be presented to a Judge or to a Bench (as the case may be) on the date fixed for the hearing of the case; but unless sufficient cause be shown for the application not having been presented in the ordinary course to the Deputy Registrar, before such hearing, the applicant will become liable to pay the costs of any adjournment or postponement caused by the omission to present the application to the Deputy Registrar.

When an application of the kinds specified in rule 5 of these rules is presented to the Deputy Registrar in relation to an appeal pending before the Court, and is deemed by him sufficient, without or after amendment, and the Deputy Registrar does not deem it necessary to refer the application for the order of a Judge, he is authorized to make an order granting the application "subject to all just exceptions" and to cause the necessary amendments to be made in the memorandum of parties' names and notices to be issued to the parties concerned to show cause on the date fixed for hearing the appeal.

15. Every application under Order XXII of the Code of Civil Procedure, not falling within rule 14 of these rules or not granted under that rule, shall be laid before a Judge for orders.

UNSOUND MIND.

2. In every appeal presented to the Deputy Registrar in which it appears from the memorandum of appeal or the copies of the judgments filed therewith, that the appellant or respondent or any of the appellants or respondents is a minor, the Deputy Registrar shall cause a note to be made on such appeal for the information and orders of the Judge or Bench exercising jurisdiction in the appeal.
3. No notice in relation to an appeal shall be issued to any respondent who, from the memorandum of appeal or the proceedings of the lower courts, appears to be a minor, unless and until a guardian for such minor has been appointed by an order of the Court or unless the issue of such notice be authorized by the special order of a Judge.

4. Any ground contained in any such memorandum of appeal, cross-objection, application, or petition containing an assertion of fact not supported by affidavit may on the hearing thereof be ordered, by the Judge or Bench, to be struck out or amended summarily, unless leave be granted to present an affidavit in support thereof.
5. Facts asserted by a party showing cause against any appeal, application or petition supported by affidavit, shall likewise be supported by affidavit, whether the facts asserted be in contradiction of the facts asserted in support of the same or be fresh matter. CHAPTER 2

Preparation of Paper Book and Records

PART A THE PREPARATION OF PRINTED RECORDS IN FIRST APPEALS.

1. In first appeals from orders no printing will be required unless specially directed by the Judge admitting the appeal, who will in that case order at his discretion the printing of either
 - (i) an ordinary paper book, or
 - (ii) a printed record under these rules.
2. In first appeals from decrees admitted to a hearing, a printed record shall, unless special orders are given to the contrary, be prepared in accordance with the instructions hereinafter contained.
3. In the absence of a special order the printed record under rule 2 shall consist of:
 - (i) (a) The plaint and pleas.
 - (b) Such documents either referred to in the plaint as forming the basis of the suit or considered by the trial court in its judgment, or duly proved by either of the parties in the trial Court, as may be specified by either party in response to a printed notice within the period of 30 days prescribed in rule 5 (i).
 - (ii) The autograph record of the trial court.
 - (iii) The report of the local Commissioner, if any, appointed under Order XXVI of the Civil Procedure Code. With the report should be printed any statements of the parties recorded before the Commissioner and tabular statements prepared by him, if they form an integral portion of his report.
 - (iv) Evidence taken on commission under Order XXVI of the Civil Procedure Code.
 - (v) The grounds of appeal to the High Court, in English.
 - (vi) The order of the Judge or Bench admitting the appeal.

4. Any part of the record not printed under rule 3 may be referred to at the hearing with the permission of the Court, but no party shall have a right to refer, during the hearing, to any documents not printed:
Provided that extracts from Revenue Records need not be printed in extenso. The parties may refer to the original record for such extracts, maps and plans.
5. (i) The Deputy Registrar shall, as soon as the record in a First Appeal has been received, cause notice to be given to the appellant and respondent, or their counsel if any, to specify within 30 days of the date of notice the documents mentioned in rule 3 (i)(b) above, which should be included in the printed record of the appeal. In default of their doing so, the printed record will consist of the documents specified in rule 3 (i) (a) and (ii) to (vi) only.

(ii) The cost of including the documents specified in rule 3 (i) (a) and (ii) to (vi) shall be borne by the appellant and shall be paid as provided for in rules 8 and 9 below.

(ii) The cost of including the documents mentioned in rule 3 (i) (b) shall be borne by the party at whose instance they are so included and must be paid within 30 days from the date of demand; otherwise they shall be excluded.
6. All documents included in the printed or photocopied record shall be printed or photocopied according to their serial order, first those produced by the plaintiff and then those produced by the defendant. On each document shall be endorsed the order by, and date on, which it was admitted by the trial court:
Provided that when counsel for both the parties agree that the documents should be arranged for convenience in a different order, the documents shall be printed in that order. In that case, a footnote shall be added on the first page of the volume of documents that the documents have been printed in the order suggested by counsel for the parties.
7. Vernacular documents printed or photocopied by desire of parties under rule 5 shall not ordinarily be translated into English unless especially desired in writing by the party at whose instance they are included in the printed or photocopied record.

Note: Documents in Hindi, Gurmukhi and other characters shall, if their translation into simple idiomatic Urdu is not already on the record, be sent to the trial Court for this purpose. The parties shall be required to appear before the trial Court to assist in the translation of such documents. Failure on their part to do so will result in the omission of such documents from the printed or photocopied record. The translation shall be accompanied by an affidavit as to its correctness.

8. In every appeal in which under these rules a record has to be printed or photocopied, the appellant shall, with his appeal, attach a receipt for a sum of five hundred rupees which should be deposited with the Treasurer of the High Court to cover the cost of printing or photocopying the record. No first appeal from a decree shall be received unless such receipt accompanies it.

Exception.- This rule does not apply to an appeal filed in forma pauperis, in which case the appellant will be required to pay the approximate cost of printing or copying of such portion of the record as the Judge admitting the appeal, may, under rule 2 of this chapter, order.*

9. (a) If the deposit required under rule 8 proves insufficient to cover the cost of that part of the printed or photocopied record which is to be borne by the appellant, the Deputy Registrar may, by a notice in writing, require that such further deposit as seems to him necessary shall be made within one month.
- (b) If such further deposit be not made within one month from the date of receipt of the notice, the appeal shall, on the expiry of that period, be sent, without notice to the appellant, to a Judge for an order of dismissal: Provided that, if the appellant makes an application within fifteen days after dismissal for the suspension of this rule, he may be granted one period of fifteen days in which to pay the deposit. Should he again make default, the appeal shall forthwith be sent, without notice to the appellant, to a Judge for an order of dismissal or other disposal.
- (c) When after deposit an ad interim order has been passed in the appeal it shall be discharged unless the further deposit, if any, is made within the period specified, according to clauses (a) and (b) of this rule.
10. The period fixed by rule 9 for the payment of the deposit may, on cause being shown in an application duly stamped, be enlarged by an order of the Court so as to permit the amount of such deposit to be paid by installment.
11. Such number of copies of the record shall be printed or photocopied as the Court may, by general rule in this behalf or by special order in any particular case, direct.

Note: The number of copies ordinarily to be printed has been fixed at ten. Enough copies should be printed or photocopied to enable juniors watching the case to be provided with them.

12. The appellant and respondent may each obtain two copies of the printed or photocopied record free of charge and one additional copy free of charge for each Advocate or Pleader employed in excess of two. Additional copies, if available, may be purchased at two rupees per page of printed or photocopied matter.*
13. Parties and counsel shall be entitled to receive copies of the printed or photocopied record on application to the Registrar or Deputy Registrar at least one month before the date fixed for hearing.
14. (a) At the foot of every printed record shall be noted the amount of the printing and incidental charges and the party from whom levied, and such amount shall be included in the costs of the appeal unless the Court shall in any case otherwise direct.
(b) Should the amount so charged be less than the sum or sums deposited under rules 5, 8 and 9, the Registrar or the Deputy Registrar shall refund the unexpended balance to the party by whom the deposit was made. Should it be more he will take action under rule 9 or 10.
15. The Registrar or the Deputy Registrar may and, if so required by either party by petition duly stamped, shall refer to the Court any matter not herein expressly required to be referred.
16. For the purposes of these rules, when an order of the Court is required, the order of one Judge shall be sufficient and such order shall, subject to reconsideration by the Bench hearing the appeal, be conclusive.
17. (a) When an order has been made by a Division or Full Bench, under Order XLI rule 25 or rule 27 of the Code of Civil Procedure, in an appeal to which these rules have been applied, and additional evidence has been taken in pursuance of such order, a Judge may, at any time after completion of the record of the enquiry, make an order that a supplementary printed or photocopied record be prepared of:
 - (i) the order made under Order XLI rule 25 or rule 27, Civil Procedure Code, and
 - (ii) the proceedings taken thereunder or any part thereof.

- (b) The order shall direct by which party or parties the expense of preparing the supplementary record or any part thereof shall be borne in the first instance.

- (c) When a Judge's order for the preparation of a supplementary record has been made, the Registrar or the Deputy Registrar shall deal with the matter under the foregoing rules so far as applicable.

1. (i) When, at the first or at any subsequent hearing of a suit, any party appearing in person or present in Court, or any person able to answer any material question relating to the suit by whom such party or his pleader is accompanied, is examined by the Court, the substance of such examination shall be reduced to writing by the Judge and shall form part of the record; the substance of what each witness deposes shall similarly be reduced to writing by the Judge, and shall form part of the record: Provided that the Judge may, if he thinks proper, direct the substance of the examination or the evidence to be recorded in shorthand by an officer of the Court or other person specially appointed for the purpose. In the latter case, the transcript of the shorthand shall be corrected and signed by the Judge and then placed on the record.
- (ii) In a suit tried in the High Court by a Bench of two or more Judges the evidence may be recorded by any one Judge. The Judge recording the evidence shall dispose of all objections of whatever nature regarding the relevancy or admissibility of evidence unless he, in his discretion, considers that any objection or objections may be referred to the Bench for decision.
2. If the Judge who has recorded evidence or caused it to be recorded in his presence, under these rules, dies or ceases to be attached to the Court before the conclusion of the suit, the Judge before whom the suit is continued may, if he thinks fit, deal with the evidence so recorded as if it had been recorded by himself or in his presence.

(b) Judgment and Orders.

3. Judgments may be written by the Judge in Urdu or English or delivered orally, and in the latter case a note thereof in writing in Urdu, English, or shorthand, shall be taken by an officer of the Court in attendance for the purpose. The note so taken shall be written out or typed in full by the officer by whom it was taken, and shall be submitted by him to the Judge for correction. After being corrected by the Judge, where necessary, it shall be filed as the judgment of the Court.
4. The judgment shall contain a concise statement of the case, the points for determination, the decision thereon and the reasons for such decision. When issues have been framed, the finding or decision of the Court upon each separate issue shall be stated, with the reason therefor, unless the finding upon any one or more of the issues be sufficient for the decision of the suit.
5. Judgment shall be delivered in open Court, either at the close of the case or on some future day, of which due notice shall be given to the parties or their counsel.
6. When a case has been heard by a Bench of the Court, the written opinions of the Judges who heard the case, but who have ceased to be attached to the Court before delivery of judgment, shall, unless delivered by another Judge of the Bench which heard the case, be deemed to be minutes merely and not judgments.
7. When a party to the suit dies after the last hearing, but before delivery of judgment, the Court may order the judgment to bear the date of the last hearing.
8. A memorandum of appeal in a case in which judgment has been delivered orally, shall be received and filed without a copy of the judgment.
9. When an order is made in Court or in chambers, a note of its purport shall be made and signed by the Judge or Judges making the order; and if the order disposes of a petition, the reasons for making it shall be stated.
10. When a suit is allowed to be withdrawn with leave to bring a fresh suit, the order shall be drawn up so as to make the payment of the costs of the first suit a condition precedent to the plaintiff bringing a fresh suit, unless the Court or the Judge who gave permission shall otherwise direct.

PART H RULES OF PROCEDURE IN APPEALS.(a) Judgments and Orders.

1. Judgments may be written by the Judge in Urdu or English or delivered orally, and in the latter case a note thereof in writing in Urdu, English, or shorthand, shall be taken by an officer of the Court in attendance for the purpose. After being corrected by the Judge, where necessary, it shall be filed as the judgment of the Court.
2. Judgment shall be delivered in open Court, either at the close of the case or on some future day, of which due notice shall be given to the parties or their counsel.
3. 4. When a party to the appeal dies after the last hearing, but before delivery of judgment, the Court may order the judgment to bear the date of the last hearing.
5. When an appeal is heard by a Bench consisting of two Judges and the Judges composing the Bench being equally divided in opinion as to the decision on a point, state that point for reference to another Judge or Judges under clause 26 of the Letters Patent, the case shall be heard on that point by one or more Judges to be nominated by the Chief Justice. The Chief Justice may be such other Judge or one of such other Judges.

6. The decree of the High Court shall be drawn up in Urdu or English, and shall bear the same date as the judgment.
7. (i) The decree shall contain the number of the appeal, the names and description of the appellant and respondent, the names of the plaintiff and defendant in the suit, and the description of the court from whose decree or order the appeal is preferred, with the date of such decree or order; and shall clearly state the relief granted or other determination of the appeal, in such manner as not to render reference to other documents necessary, except the decrees of the courts below, when those decrees are affirmed or varied, but not reversed.

Note: In all important cases the Deputy Registrar will, if this can be done without undue delay or inconvenience, obtain the signature of counsel to the draft decree.

- (ii) The decree shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the appeal, and by what parties and in what proportions the same, and the costs incurred in the courts below, shall be paid.
- (iii) In pauper appeals the provisions of Order XXXIII rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be observed.

The heading of the decree should run--
 “ Appeal in forma pauperis by ---.”
 In the body should be inserted—

“ The following Court-fee costs are recoverable by Government as a first charge upon the subject-matter, under Order XXXIII rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure.”

- 8. (i) As soon as a decree has been drawn up, the Deputy Registrar shall cause a notice to be exhibited on the notice board, stating that the decree has been drawn up, and that any party to the decree or counsel of any party to the decree may, within 3 days, peruse the decree and sign it or file with the Deputy Registrar an objection to the decree on the ground that there is in the judgment a clerical error or omission or that the decree is not in accordance with the judgment upon which it is based. Such objection, if any, shall state clearly what is the clerical error or omission alleged or in what respect the decree is not in accordance with the judgment, and shall be signed and dated by the party or by the Advocate filing it.

- (ii) Should any such objection, as is mentioned in clause (i), be filed on or before the date specified in the notice, the Deputy Registrar shall, on notice to all the parties, put up the appeal or case together with the judgment therein, the draft decree and the objection, for orders before the Judge or Judges, or one of them, who delivered the judgment; or if such Judge or Judges has or have ceased to be Judge or Judges of the Court or be absent on leave or furlough, then before such Judge or Judges as the Chief Justice shall appoint for that purpose.
- (iii) Should no such objection, as is mentioned in clause (i), be filed on or before the date specified in the notice, the Deputy Registrar or such other officer as may be in charge of the judicial department for the time being having first dated the decree as of the day when the judgment upon which the decree is founded was delivered, shall sign the decree and seal it with the seal of the Court.
- (iv) The above procedure shall also be observed in respect of final orders in all miscellaneous, revision, or other cases.

Note: Under no circumstances shall any decree or order passed or made by a Judge or Judges be altered, varied or departed from in any particular in the office, except under an order, in writing, of the Judge or Judges who passed or made such decree or order or except under an order made on appeal from such decree or order or except under an order made in review.

- 9. No decree shall be drawn up in cases in which the decision of the lower court is confirmed under Order XLI rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure.
- 10. (i) When the draft of any decree or order has been ordered to be settled in the presence of the parties or when none of the Judges who concurred in the judgment continues attached to the Court and the Deputy Registrar thinks it necessary that it should be so settled, the Deputy Registrar shall, by notice in writing, which shall be accompanied by copies of the draft prepared for approval, appoint a time for settling the same, and the parties or their counsel must attend such appointment and produce before the Deputy Registrar such documents as may be necessary to enable him to settle the draft. The notice will be sent from the Deputy Registrar's office to counsel, if any, of the parties, with a receipt book, in which shall be obtained the signature of the person with whom the notice is left.

- (ii) The notice shall be served on the parties who have appeared in person by the party who has the carriage of the decree or the order. When so served, the original notice, with a memorandum endorsed thereon of the service of a copy thereof, signed by the party by whom such service was made, must be delivered to the Deputy Registrar who may, if not satisfied that service has been duly made, require such service to be verified by affidavit.
11. If any party fails to attend the Deputy Registrar's appointment for settling the draft of a decree or order, or fails to produce any document called for by the Deputy Registrar, the Deputy Registrar may proceed to settle such draft in his absence, or without the production of the documents aforesaid, or may mention the matter to the Court.
 12. The Deputy Registrar may adjourn any appointment for settling the draft of any decree or order to such time as he may think fit, and the parties who attend the appointment shall be bound to attend the adjourned appointment without further notice.

The application must be made by motion, or notice to the parties who appeared at the hearing.

PART I FEES OF COUNSEL.

1. In suits for the recovery of specific property or a share of specific property, whether moveable or immovable, or for the breach of any contract or for damages-
 - (a) if the amount or value of the property, debt or damages decreed shall not exceed rupees five thousand according to the valuation for purposes of appeal to the Court, the fee shall be calculated at seven and a half percent on the amount or value decreed, but the Court may, in any case, otherwise order and fix such percentage as shall appear to the Court to be just and equitable;
 - (b) if the amount or value decreed shall exceed rupees five thousand, the fee payable shall be calculated at such a percentage as shall appear to the Court to be just and equitable
2. In suits for injuries to the person or character of the plaintiff, such as suits for assault or defamation or for injuries to property or to enforce rights where the pecuniary value of such injury or right cannot be exactly defined, _ as in suits for interference with a right to light or water, or to enforce a right of pre-emption, or suits for the partition of joint property, where partition is improperly resisted _, if the plaintiff succeeds, the Court may order the fee allowed to the plaintiff to be calculated with reference either to the amount decreed or according to the valuation of the suit or according to such sum not exceeding the valuation, as the Court shall think reasonable and shall fix with reference to the importance of the subject matter in dispute. In any such case, the amount of the fee shall be calculated according to rule1.
3. If the suit be dismissed for default or upon the merits, the fee allowed to the defendant shall be calculated according to rule 1 on the whole value of the suit.
4. If the suit shall be decreed for the plaintiff as to part only of the claim, and as to the remainder shall be dismissed, the fee allowed to each party should be fixed with reference to the value of that part of the claim in respect of which he shall succeed, and shall be calculated according to rule 1.
5. If in any suit for damages, the plaintiff succeeds as to the whole of his cause of action, but fails to recover the full amount of damages claimed, the defendant shall not be entitled to any allowance for counsel in respect of the difference between the amount of damages claimed and the amount recovered, unless the Court shall be of opinion that the amount claimed for damages was unreasonable or excessive and shall, for that or any other cause, direct that a fee be allowed to the defendant.

If specially allowed, the amount of such fee shall be fixed with reference to the amount of damages disallowed to the plaintiff and shall be calculated according to rule 1.

6. If several defendants who have a joint or common interest succeed upon a joint defence, or upon separate defences substantially the same, not more than one fee shall be allowed, unless the Court shall otherwise order. If only one fee be allowed, the Court shall direct to which of the defendants it shall be paid or shall apportion it among the several defendants in such manner as the Court shall think fit.
7. If several defendants, who have separate interests, set up separate and distinct defences and succeed thereon, a fee for each of the defendants who shall appear by separate counsel may be allowed in respect of his separate interest. Such fee, if allowed, shall be calculated, with reference to the value of the separate interest of such defendants, according to rule 1.
8. In any miscellaneous proceeding or for any matter other than that of appearing, acting or pleading in a suit prior to decree, the fee shall be fixed by the Court with reference to the nature and importance of the proceeding or matter
9. If a suit in the High Court, as a Court of original jurisdiction, be undefended, the fee shall be calculated at one - half the sum fixed for a defended suit of the same nature and value.
10. If a review be rejected after summoning the opposite party or if, after the admission of a review, the former judgment be upheld, the fee, if allowed to the successful party in the review, shall be fixed by the Court at an amount which shall not in any case exceed one-half of the amount allowed by these rules in case of an original decree.

11. Provided also that if an issue be framed and referred by the Court for trial by a lower court, the Court may, if it thinks proper, allow to the party who shall succeed in the appeal, such sum as the Court shall consider reasonable, not exceeding half the amount which would be allowed under these rules in an original case, for his fee in respect of the trial of the issue in the lower court, in addition to a fee in respect of the appeal.
