3. The Commission.— (1) The Commission shall consist of not less than three and not more than five Commissioners including the Chairperson, as the Government may determine.

(2) A Commissioner shall be a person who is known for integrity, expertise, experience and eminence in the field of law, administration, social work or any other related field.

(3) The Government may appoint Commissioners from amongst serving or retired civil servants, retired judges and private sector on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed and until so prescribed as the Government may determine.

(4) Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Commission shall discharge its functions, exercise its powers and conduct its proceedings in the prescribed manner and until so prescribed in the manner the Commission may determine.

(5) The term of the office of a Commissioner shall be two years.

(6) A Commissioner shall perform such functions as may be prescribed or assigned by the Commission.

4. Chairperson of the Commission.— (1) The Government shall appoint one of the Commissioners as the Chairperson of the Commission but a Commissioner shall not be appointed as Chairperson for more than two consecutive terms.

(2) The Chairperson and the Commissioners shall be responsible for the due discharge of the mandate of the Commission.

5. Chief Executive Officer.— (1) The Government shall, in consultation with the Commission, appoint the Chief Executive Officer of the Commission on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed and until so prescribed as the Government may determine.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer shall be responsible for the day to day administration of the Commission and shall perform such other functions as may be prescribed or assigned by the Commission.

6. Functions of the Commission.— (1) The Commission shall perform such functions as may be necessary for accomplishing the purposes of the Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, the Commission shall:

- (a) maintain public trust and confidence in charities;
- (b) register charities;
- (c) protect charities and the beneficiaries thereof;
- (d) ensure that charities and promoters comply with their legal obligations in exercising control and management of the administration of the charitable funds;
- (e) issue necessary advice to the charities and charity trustees;
- (f) ensure effective use of charitable funds;
- (g) institute a mechanism for effective monitoring and accountability of charities, promoters, collectors and recipients;
- (h) hold, if necessary, an enquiry into the affairs of a charity or charitable fund;
- (i) alter or set aside sanction of collection accorded by a Deputy Commissioner;
- (j) receive and examine annual audit report of a charity or charitable fund;
- (k) conduct or cause to be conducted a special audit of a charity or charitable fund;
- (l) issue guidelines for proper accounting, management and utilization of a charity or charitable fund;
- (m) issue such directions to the Deputy Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners as may be necessary for the due discharge of the functions under the Act; and
- (n) perform such other related functions as the Government may assign.

7. Power to call for record of charities, etc.— (1) The Commission may call for any record, data or information about a charity, a charity trustee, the beneficiaries of a charity, a charitable fund and expenditure on charity by a corporate entity.

(2) The Commission may seek verification of the financial records from financial institutions and may utilize the services of a law enforcing agency for the purpose.

8. Power to appoint charity trustee.— (1) The Commission may appoint a charity trustee or any officer or office-bearer of a charity if such charity fails to remove a trustee or appoint a new trustee or officer where:

- (a) a trustee or officer has been convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude, dishonesty or deception; or
- (b) a trustee has been adjudged bankrupt; or
- (c) the conduct of a trustee or officer is detrimental to the cause of the charity owing to mismanagement or other reasons as may be determined by a court or the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall provide an opportunity of defence and hearing to the charity or the person likely to be affected by the decision of the Commission.

9. Enquiry.— (1) The Commission, on its own motion or on receipt of a request from the Government or a complaint from any person, may hold an enquiry into the affairs of a charity to ascertain whether any charitable funds have been misapplied or misappropriated or there is any breach of trust.

(2) If as a result of enquiry under sub-section (1), the Commission finds that an offence has been committed under any law or any trust has been breached, it may move a reference to the Government to proceed further in accordance with law.

10. Employees.— (1) The Commission may, from time to time, employ persons to assist the Commission in the performance of its functions.

(2) The employees of the Commission shall be paid such remuneration and allowances and shall hold their employment on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

11. Appointment of advisers, consultants etc.— The Commission may, with the approval of the Government, employ such consultants, or technical professionals or advisers as may be necessary for the due discharge of its functions under the Act, on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed and until so prescribed, as the Government may determine.

12. Charities to be registered.— (1) Every charity shall get itself registered with the Commission not later than such date as the Government may, by notification, determine.

(2) A charity shall not collect charitable funds or seek collection of the charitable funds unless it is registered under the Act.

13. Exemption.— The Government may, after recording reasons, exempt an organization or charity from the provisions of section 12 of the Act, but an organization which is not registered as a not-for-profit company shall not be so exempted.

14. Register of charities.— (1) The Commission shall maintain a Register of Charities in such manner as may be prescribed and until so prescribed as the Commission may determine.

(2) The Register shall contain:

(a) the name of every registered charity; and

(b) such other particulars of, and such other information relating to, every such charity as may be prescribed or as the Commission may determine.

15. Application for registration.— (1) Every organization required to be registered under the Act shall provide to the registering authority the information regarding the objectives of the charity, the source or sources of income of the charity and the nature of its spending, and such other documents or information as may be prescribed.

(2) The Registering Authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse registration of an organization if in its opinion the objects of charity stated in declaration are not in consonance with the charitable purpose or for any other reasonable cause.

16. Register to be public document.— (1) The Register of Charities shall be a public document and shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times.

(2) A person may obtain copies of particulars of Register of Charities or documents supplied by a charity subject to payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

(3) The Commission shall publish on its website such information in the Register as may be necessary to create general awareness about the work and conduct of charities.

17. Cancellation of registration.— The Commission may, after affording an opportunity of hearing, suspend or cancel the registration of a charity if the Commission is satisfied that:

(a) the organization or association of persons is not furthering any charitable purpose; or

(b) the charity has committed a serious violation of the provisions of the Act or the rules.

18. Registering authority.— (1) The Commission shall be the registering authority when the operation of a charity extends to the whole of the Punjab or two or more districts.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner shall be the registering authority when the operation of a charity does not extend beyond the district.

(3) The Assistant Commissioner shall be the registering authority where the operation of a charity extends only to a Tehsil.

19. Sanctioning authority.— (1) The Commission may sanction the collection of charitable funds if the collection is proposed to be made from the whole of the Punjab or two or more districts or for a period of more than twelve months.

(2) Subject to subsection (1):

(a) the Deputy Commissioner may sanction the collection of charitable funds if the collection is to be made from within a district; and

(b) the Assistant Commissioner may sanction the collection of charitable funds if the collection is to be made from within a Tehsil.

20. Prohibition on collection.— (1) A promoter shall not make or solicit collection for any charitable fund unless before the start of the collection, he makes a declaration in respect of the intended collection and delivers the declaration to the sanctioning authority, and the sanctioning authority sanctions, in writing, the collection.

(2) The sanctioning authority may refuse to sanction the collection under this section if it is not satisfied with regard to good faith of the promoter or persons proposing to make the collection, or if the authority is not satisfied with regard to the proper custody of the fund or the due administration of the fund for the purpose for which it is to be collected.

(3) The sanctioning authority may sanction the collection subject to such conditions as it may consider necessary for ensuring the proper custody of the fund and its due administration and utilization for the objects and purposes of the charitable fund.

(4) If the sanctioning authority sanctions the collection, it shall issue or cause to be issued a certificate for a specified period, to the promoter in such form and manner as the Commission may, by regulations, prescribe, authorizing him to make the collection through identified collectors and for identified recipients.

(5) The Deputy Commissioner may alter or set aside a sanction of collection accorded by an Assistant Commissioner in the district.

21. Powers of sanctioning authority.— The sanctioning authority may, at any time, for sufficient reasons and after affording opportunity of hearing, cancel or alter any order made or direction given by it under the Act .

22. Residuary powers of the Commission.— The Commission may issue such directions to the Deputy Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners as may be necessary for achieving the objectives of the Act.

23. Periodic evaluation of charities.— The Commission shall undertake a periodic evaluation of the charities to review the performance of the charity trustees under the Act.

24. Administrative actions.— (1) If, after evaluation or audit, the Commission is satisfied that any charity has failed to comply with the obligations envisaged under the Act, the Commission may:

(a) suspend or cancel the registration of that charity under the Act; and

(b) impose fine, not exceeding one million rupees, on the charity or organization.

(2) The Commission shall not take any action under sub-section (1) unless the charity or organization is afforded a reasonable opportunity of hearing and showing cause against the proposed action.

25. Reports.— The Commission shall, from time to time, publish reports, highlighting the areas of operations carried out by the Commission and other administrative actions taken during the period under report.

26. Obligations of charity trustees.– (1) A charity trustee shall:

- (a) comply with the terms and conditions of the governing instrument which envisages the establishment of the charity trustee with the relevant authority;
- (b) coordinate with the other charities operating in the respective domain for purposes of consolidated efforts at achieving the objectives and targets under the Act; and
- (c) immediately inform the Commission about any change in the constituent document of the charity.

27. Fiduciary responsibilities of charity trustees.– A charity trustee shall be responsible for:

- (a) controlling the assets of the charity;
- (b) protection, proper investment and utilization of the charitable fund;
- (c) ensuring that the charitable funds are not used for any purpose other than the declared purpose;
- (d) ensuring that the charitable funds or property is not misused or allowed to go waste as a result of mismanagement or for any other reasons;
- (e) the sale, lease or other disposal of the charity property and insurance of the charity property; and
- (f) ensuring that no unnecessary encumbrances are created on the charity property.

28. Accounting records of a charity.– (1) The charity trustees shall ensure that accurate accounting records are maintained in respect of the charity.

(2) The accounting records shall mention all the transactions of the charity and shall also reflect on the financial position
